CONFERENCE TOPICS

Morning Sessions

Created for Prayer - Part 2

Rev. Brian K. Wells

Rev. Wells explores the purpose of our creation and how prayer transforms the life of the believer in this follow-up message to his talk at last year's Prayer School. He will again be exploring Nahum 3:14 and drilling deeper in the truths of our purpose on earth.

The Day Intercessors Come Out of the Closet

Pastor David Whiteman

While studying Isaiah 50:10-11 and 51:1-3, Pastor Whiteman felt the Lord prompt him that, 'What intercessors are doing now, personally and anonymously, God will cause them to do corporately and publicly.' In the next great awakening, which some have called the Apostolic Reformation, intercessors will be used in a much greater way. This is something God will do and we will get excited and let it happen.

Afternoon Sessions

Spiritual Secrets to a More Powerful Prayer Life

Elizabeth Smith

The Scriptures provide great insight into prayer. As we follow these invaluable guidelines, God pours his grace and power into our prayers. In this session, Mrs. Smith will look at several strategies for more effective praying, including steps we can take as we pray, how to remove the barriers to answered prayer, and how to release God's power when we pray.

Delighted Intercessors

Pastor David Whiteman

Many times we as intercessors get so caught up in the struggle of our prayer war that we need to be reconnected to the joy, rewards, sacred delight, and just plain fun of it all. Jesus offers this in his Beatitudes sermon in Matthew 5. Here Jesus reminds us that we are to seek Him, as it is said in Proverbs 2-3, and we will receive it all.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Rev. Brian K. Wells

Reverend Wells is a Board Member of Breakthrough. He pastors Family Worship Center Church in Sterling, Virginia, and currently is a member of the Board of Directors of two other non-profit organizations. He and his wife, Carol, reside in Northern Virginia with their two sons, Timothy and James.

Pastor David Whiteman

Following graduation from Dallas Theological Seminary, David read a survey which reported that, on average, pastors spend 2 minutes a day in prayer. Finding that unacceptable, David began a quest to learn to pray. He began reading what the Bible taught about prayer and books by Catherine Marshall and Peter Wagner. Since that time, his greatest joy in ministry is the breakthrough that comes while in prayer. Furthermore, the church he pastors is respected and referred to in the community as a "house of prayer."

Elizabeth Smith

Elizabeth serves as Vice-Chairman of the Board at Breakthrough and has been an intercessor since 1980. She has written articles on prayer and speaks on the subject at conferences and women's retreats. She stresses the lessons the Bible teaches about prayer and has considerable experience in the area of healing prayer and hospital work.
